STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In terms of the State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959, the Bank of Indore Limited became a subsidiary of the State Bank of India and was renamed as State Bank of Indore. In view of the recent developments in international banking scenario and for better functioning, the State Bank of India has, with the sanction of the Central Government and in consultation with the Reserve Bank of India, entered into negotiations for acquiring the business, including the assets and liabilities of the State Bank of Indore. The terms and conditions relating to such acquisition were agreed upon by the Central Board of the State Bank of India and the Board of the State Bank of Indore in the form of a Scheme.

2. Thereafter, the Reserve Bank of India approved the acquisition of the business of the State Bank of Indore and in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 35 of the State Bank of India Act, 1955, the Central Government has accorded its sanction thereto. Accordingly, the Acquisition of the State Bank of Indore Order, 2010 was published in the Gazette of India, vide, Notification No. G.S.R. 638(E), dated the 28th July, 2010. As per the said Order, the business of the State Bank of Indore has to be carried out by the State Bank of India in accordance with the State Bank of India Act, 1955. After the acquisition of the State Bank of Indore by the State Bank of India vide said Order, references to the State Bank of Indore in the State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959 have become redundant. It is therefore, proposed to amend the State Bank of India (Subsidiary Banks) Act, 1959 to omit such references.

3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.

NEW DELHI;
The 10th November, 2010.
